BIO & MUSICAL PROFILE

SHORT BIO

Jesper Nyboe, also known as Nyboe, is a Copenhagen-based Danish vinyl DJ, crate digger, radio host and music curator active since 2005. Known for deep vinyl knowledge and atmospheric DJ sets, Nyboe specializes in hip hop, jazz-funk, breaks, library music, soundtracks and rare grooves from around the world.

LONG BIO

Nyboe began DJing on vinyl in 2005 after already establishing himself as a music writer, curator and hip hop contributor in Denmark. His approach is rooted in vinyl skills, musical storytelling and discoveries beyond the obvious. Over the past two decades, he has played clubs, cafés, wine bars, festivals, concerts, exhibitions, hip hop jams and listening-oriented venues across Denmark.

Nyboe is a multiple-time international DJ and mixtape competition winner. In addition to live performances, he hosts the monthly vinyl radio show WaxWorks on Black Rhino Radio and produces vinyl DJ livestreams for an audience interested in records, sample culture and curated music.

PRIMARY GENRES

- Hip hop - classic, underground, G-funk, boom-bap and instrumental
- Jazz-funk, rare grooves and international records
- Breaks, beats and sample-based music
- Library music, soundtracks and cinematic selections

DJ STYLE

- 100% vinyl sets with a strong focus on flow and atmosphere
- Built for listening, discovery and musical storytelling
- Suited for clubs, cafés, wine bars, festivals and cultural events
- Flexible range from hip hop and beats to jazz-funk and soundtrack-driven selections
